

THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE WEEK

Pope Francis receives for first time a COTAL president

This is the first time ever that the Holy See receives a delegation from the Latin American Confederation of Tourism Organizations (COTAL), headed by its president, Armando Bojorquez Patron, and made up by authorities and businesspeople from the Latin American tourism sector.... »

SPECIAL FEATURES

TTC Special: Climate change: more accurate weather reports are required

A discrete but intense current scientific search is how to better predict the climate, something that may seem as simple as seeing the climatic information provided by the minute-by-minute television stations around the world, received from the big centers of weather forecast.... »

TRANSPORTATION

Point of View: U.S. cruise companies, Cuban officials hold meeting despite setback in U.S.-Cuba ties

The Cruise Line International Association (CLIA) organized its annual meeting here on Tuesday in a bid to expand cruise travel to Cuba during its tourism boom which began in 2015.... »

